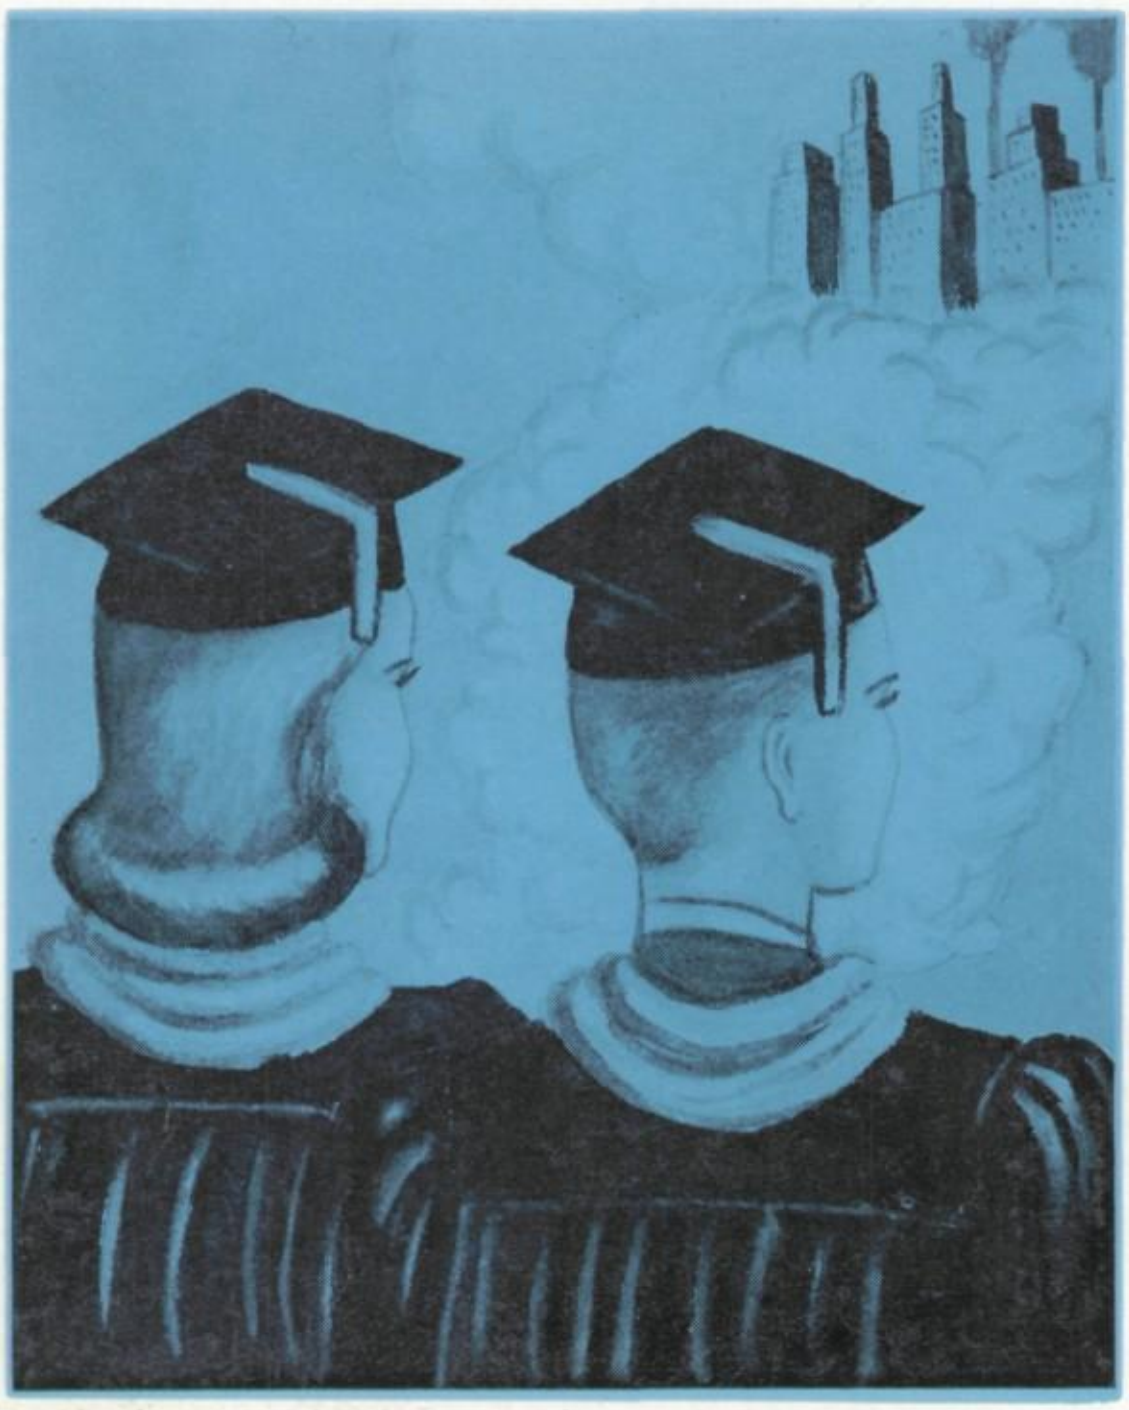
THE 1940 COPPER KETTLE

Annual Publication of the
Douglas High School
Douglas, Arizona



EDITOR'S NOTE

THE exciting first day of school, the hustle accompanying the fall activities, the balminess of spring days, the carefree happiness of summer days, foretelling the close of school—all these and those many other memories of the past school year that have been crowded from your mind, we have captured for you in this 1940 Copper Kettle, hoping that it will serve as a mirror of those scenes, and that you will regard it as a friend—one to whom you may refer and always find there happiness.

THE BOOK from here — The dedication follows and then scenic views of the campus. Book One is Administration including the faculty and student officers. Book Two is the classes. Book Three — Personalities including Who's Who. Book Four is Athletics. Book Five — Photogravure in which the many activities of the students are shown in informal pictures. Book Six is School Activities including all organizations and publication staffs. Advertising and humor follow through to the end.

ORDER OF BOOKS

Miss Mildred Dailey

Dedica

As a helper, a co-worker, and a friend, she has won for herself a place in every senior's heart. It is to her we owe the success of the class undertakings. Her unfailing enthusiasm in all our activities has spurred us on to renewed energy in wider and more varied fields. It is with humble gratitude in our hearts and a song of praise on our lips that we, the Senior Class of 1940, dedicate this 1940 Graduation edition of the Copper Kettle to Miss Mildred Dailey.

• Enjoying the role of upper classmen to the fullest, the Junior class celebrated by carrying off various honors on the athletic field, and in scholastic attainment. The support of the Copper Kettle King and Queen contest occupied their time for a while, for their loyal support placed various members high on the scoreboard. Shortly after the close of this contest, they busied themselves with the Hi-Jinx carnival, devoting their energy to help make their booth a success. After resting a bit, the Junior class gained renown distinction via their Kay Kyser program assembly. Entertaining as well as informing, this assembly caused several members from the various classes to put on their thinking caps in an effort to cop the coveted award—a lollypop! Ending their activities for the year, the Junior class properly feted the Senior class with the annual Junior Banquet and prom, providing food and fun for the upper classmen. The Prom was given in May in the high school gymnasium.

• Gathering speed and prestige as the years roll on, the Sophomore class fixed itself more firmly as a character in the scenes enacted daily in the life of DHS. Several of its female members brought glory to themselves and to their class by being strong contenders for the title of Queen in the Copper Kettle and Queen contest, held early in December. They noticeably bettered their financial condition by sponsoring a dart booth in the annual Hi-Jinx carnival, but, however, this was the only economic venture

• Stepping right into the swing of Douglas Hi affairs, the freshman class entered into every activity with welcomed enthusiasm and vitality. After the election of officers, they chose Miss Mahoney, last year's senior class advisor, to advise them in the problems confronting the freshman class. Under her supervision one of the most profitable of the Hi-Jinx booths was sponsored by this new addition to the D.H.S. family. Showing up strong in athletics also the freshman class placed several of their members

• The mid-semester Freshman class entered Douglas High School Janurary 26, after the brief breathing spell of a week-end between graduation from Grammar school and their debut into high school society. Easily recognized by their timidness and shyness, they bungled into wrong classes at wrong times for the first week or so, but accepted the laughs with sheepish grins and good humor. After they became acquainted with the routine, however, they turned out good work. For the remainder of the semester this freshman class placed more members on the honor roll for more points than any other class. When track season opened, Frosh boys could be seen beating the cinders, just warming up for the next three years, when they really will be the winning team of D. H. S. One or two of their numbers were capable enough to place in the various meets that the Bulldogs entered into during the track season. Several earned positions on the baseball team. The class can well be proud of its accomplishments.

Dearest Jessie,

I want you to know how much I've enjoyed our friendship. I think you are a grand and very sweet girl. I always remember the swell time we had together in school this year and all the fun we've had together the past thirteen or is it fourteen years-

Just because I won't be here next year I hope our friendship will always continue. I hope your dreaming these years in good "old" D. H. S. will be full of success and happiness- Always keep up the good work Jessie and you'll come through with flying colors-

Again I wish you all the success in the world

Love to my "little sister"

Betty Ann

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for the honor you have bestowed upon me by asking that I select two young ladies to act as attendants to the Queen of the Coronation Ball.

My selections are Marjorie Garrett and Florence Lindsey, both of whom I believe have great personality and charm.

Sincerely,
Special
Robert Cummings

THE CORONATION BALL was given Dec. 2 amidst snow banks and evergreens in a Winter Carnival spirit in the high school gymnasium. Soft colored lights diffused over the entire gym set a glowing spirit to the occasion. King Jack and Queen Rosemary were attended by Marjorie Garrett, Florence Lindsey, William Hudzietz and Howard Evans. Flower girl was Monica La Verne Morse and crown bearers were Madeline Williams and Mary Beth Nelson. Mr. Carlson, superintendent of schools, crowned the celebrities in an impressive ceremony.

Who's Who

THE TWELVE Douglas High School students appearing in this section of the Copper Kettle were chosen by several committees composed of faculty members. Careful deliberation was made in the various selections and the students take their place as the "stand-outs" for 1939 - 1940.

Four years, when I look back on your graduating, I'll remember the girl who was seldom ready to go to class.

Patsy

Patsy Henderson—all-around girl of D. H. S. President of N. H. S., vice president of P. E. P. member of G. A. A., and active in Thespians. Co-editor of the Border Bulldog. Can rattle ivories to the envy of many.

Ted Bloodworth—President of the Junior Class, President of the Hi Y, member of the "D" club, chosen on All-Star football team. Active in dramatics when not doing anything else. Really an all-around boy.

Verna Lusk—even though she shines in her books, she still finds time for music and P. E. P. activities. Has maintained an enviable record in scholastic attainment throughout her four years in high school.

Rogelio Serrano—valedictorian of the Senior class, with highest scholastic average in high school. Busys himself with his books, but confidentially writes poetry on the side. Last years Who's Who for scholastics also.

Best wishes to a very pretty and nice swell girl.
Wanda Ferguson

Wanda Ferguson—chosen for outstanding qualities of leadership, has played an active part in all school activities. This year she served as president of the P. E. P. and was a very active member of the school yell team.

Bill Deeming—outstanding as a leader, is the student body president. Lettered in football his first year out. Active in all phases of school activities, and a real leader. Active worker in the Hi Y and all of its functions. Bill made a competent S. B. prexy.

Florence Lindsey—selected for service to the school. Editor of the 1940 Copper Kettle. Was Douglas' D. A. R. representative and president of the Thespian Club. Kept secretary's books for P. E. P. Has served the school well.

Bill Hudzietz—outstanding for service. Business manager of the 1940 Copper Kettle. Was president of the senior class for the first semester. Active in sports and school activities. Has contributed four full years of real service.

Melvin West—Selected for sportsmanship. Selected for athletics in 1939 Who's Who. Prexy of the "D" Club—lettered in four sports. Known for his clean sportsmanship both on and off the sports field.

Helen Adams—her cheerful grin and well-known friendliness has rightfully earned her a title of good sportsmanship. Active in every phase of school life and can be depended on to do a good job. Known as "Scatter-brain" to everyone.

Minnie Kennon—1939 Who's Who for athletics; ditto this year. President of the G. A. A., winner of the G. A. A. letter and pin. Member of the National Honor Socitety. D. H. S. is proud of Minnie's athletic record.

James Negri—letters in four major sports placed him for athletics. He's just a junior but well-known to everyone. Southern Conference Basketball tourney award winner, and an all-state guard—a position earned by his play in the basketball tournament.

COACHING STAFF . . .

COACH MILT MORSE continued in his eleventh year as Bulldog mentor. He developed a football squad out of light and inexperienced material. Morse also heads basketball and track—this year his hoop squad was nosed out in the state quarter-finals.

SHARPSHOOTERS take their instruction from Bob Johnston who has fired for several seasons with the Arizona squad at Camp Perry. This sport is only a minor one in D.H.S., but coach Johnston has several interested boys each year and postal matches are fired frequently.

THELBERT MORROW assists Coach Morse with football and basketball, tutoring the second squad in each sport. Baseball is "Tom's" long shot and he is bringing the sport back with D.H.S. fans. This is his second year at the head of the horsehiders and the '40 season was a fair success.

. . . . . YELL KINGS

• The cheer team of Harbour, Ferguson, and Gwin served out the year in great style. The three lead all yells during a drab football season while the two girls carried on during the remainder of the season. Bobbie and Wanda created considerable enthusiasm and pep amongst the high school students and the hoop season saw some real yelling for the Bulldogs.

Wanda Ferguson

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

• HOWARD EVANS was elected captain of the Bulldogs at the close of the season and he led his team against the Bisbee Pumas Turkey Day. Howard played stellar ball for the Morsemen this year and was always an offensive threat. This was his third year on the Bulldog first squad—earning the official "D" three times. Howard was chosen to play with the Southern Arizona All Stars during the Christmas holidays.

PHOENIX 34 — DOUGLAS 0

Showing their inexperience, the Bulldogs fell before the mighty Phoenix Coyotes 34-0 in their home opener. The Coyotes scored twice in the first quarter. At the start of the second quarter, the Bulldogs punted and Karnofsky twisted his way from the 50 to the goal line for the Coyotes third score. Again in the second frame the Coyotes scored after blocking a kick by Mel West. The Coyotes scored again in the third, this via the air route. Pollard, reserve end, recovered a Coyote fumble that started the Bulldogs marching. Evans and Suarez plunged to a first down on the 20 where the thrust was repelled by the return of the Coyote regulars. The Bulldogs need not be shamed by this defeat for Phoenix soundly whipped every other team they met and were undisputed state champions.

NOGALES 6 — DOUGLAS 0

The Bulldogs dropped a heart breaker to the Nogales Apaches 6-0. Poor punting, fumbling and penalties constantly set the Bulldogs back. The Bulldogs outgained and out-played the Apaches in every phase of the game. An exchange of punts put the ball in the shadow of the Bulldog goal posts. A penalty set the Bulldogs back on the one, where Marcus smashed over on his third try. The Apaches never threatened after this tally.

Douglas threatened twice after that, but were turned back by the fumbling of a cold team. Blood-

Grisham stops Barnett for no gain worth and Bigelow were the stars of the game, throwing the Apaches for the numerous losses.

LAS CRUCES 25 — DOUGLAS 0

The Bulldogs lost their only game away from home to their namesake in Las Cruces 25 to 0. Las Cruces received and marched to a quick touchdown in the first few minutes of play. Comunez, halfback, led the attack throughout the game scoring three touchdowns and setting up the other. The Bulldog offensive threat was greatly weakened by the loss of slingin' Mel West, their only passer. He received a chest injury and was lost for the rest of the season. Lowery, Good, and Deeming were the mainstays of the Bulldogs, often foiling razzle dazzle pass plays.

TOMBSTONE 0 — DOUGLAS 21

The following week the Bulldogs easily marched over a weak Yellowjacket eleven, 21 - 0. The first eleven pushed the ball to the eleven yard line in the first quarter, and Jim Negri, fullback, plunged over on the first play of the second quarter. "Bloody" Bloodworth, guard, scored two points in this quarter by blocking a Tombstone kick for a safety. Early in the third, Suarez plunged over for a tally after Mel West placed the ball in position. Suarez plunged for the extra point. Lew Young, frosh halfback, set up the third score by a scintillating 20 yard scamper. Tombstone held, but took to the air in a vain attempt to score. Negri intercepted a pass and ran 30 yards for the final score as the gun sounded.

"D" DAY — DEMING 0 — DOUGLAS 44

Fired with the traditional spirit of "D" Day, the Golden Avalanche crushed the Deming Wildcats 44 - 0. Negri started the fireworks early in the first quarter by scoring on an off-tackle smash. A few minutes later he scored again from the Deming 45, the conversion failed. West scored twice in rapid succession in the second quarter, on line smashes, made possible by almost perfect interference. A few plays later "Stubb" Lowery, Bulldog end, skirted around end on an end around from the 32 to score without being touched. Evans scored in the third. The conversion was made through the line. In the final quarter West and Negri scored a pair of touchdowns to end the scoring spree.

TUCSON 32 — DOUGLAS 6

The Douglas Bulldogs were badly out-classed and over-powered by the Tucson Badgers, which resulted in the Bulldogs taking a 32 - 6 defeat. The Douglas Bulldogs started off with Young's punt being blocked. The Badger's machine began to click on end sweeps and Sutherland trotted over for a score. Later in the same quarter Johnson scored on a delayed line buck. Valenzuelo's place kick was good. Henderson intercepted a pass and galloped 23 yards to score. Sutherland plunged over late in the second period to end the half 26 to 0 .

The Badgers scored again in the third quarter. A bad punt combined with Evans' and Suarez' running made the only Bulldog touchdown of the game.

Not so fast, Mr. Evans. You have gone far enough.

LORDSBURG 0 — DOUGLAS 7

The Morsemen turned on the steam to take the Lordsburg Mavericks to the tune of 7 to 0.

From the time of the kick off until the report of the gun, both squads fought for every yard gained with the Bulldogs making gains on runs, the Mavericks advancing with their aerial attack. Held scoreless the first period, Evans swept around end to score in the second half. Negri made the extra point. The Bulldogs were again held scoreless in the third period and were finally able to push over in the fourth quarter, but were called back because of a holding penalty.

BISBEE 13 — DOUGLAS 7

In a thrill-packed, bitterly-fought contest, the Bulldogs let Bisbee tie them in games won during their 32 year old rivalry. Garner Barnett led the Pumas to the two yard line aided by a heavy penalty. From here Barnett swept the end for the first score. Crist's placement was low and the Pumas led 6 to 0.

The remaining time in the half was played in midfield with the Bulldog forward wall rushing Barnett hard on his kicks.

The Bulldogs received on the kick-off and carried the ball on smashing power plays 72 yards to the goal without relinquishing it once. Negri walked over for the extra point without being touched.

The Pumas resorted to tricky reverses that dumbfounded the Bulldogs and Barnett climaxed them with a line smash for the final Bisbee tally.

BISBEE 0 — DOUGLAS 7

The Bulldogs again stepped into the lead they have held the past six years in games won and lost, 29 - 28 by virtue of their Thanksgiving Day win over Bisbee 7 - 0.

Starting eleven seniors, the Bulldogs kept the play in Bisbee territory from the start. Bill Deeming, Bulldog fullback, was the consistent gainer, plowing through the mud again and again. Early in the second the Bulldogs drove to scoring territory but were held and Bisbee kicked out. Again they drove through and were not denied as Evans scored on a 7 yard run. Deeming then drove over for the extra point that was to be the Bulldogs' final score of the season.

The Pumas drove back hard in the third frame, crossing the Bulldogs' 20 for the first and only time of the game. The Pumas vaunted aerial attack was completely smothered, for the Bulldogs intercepted more than they completed. Lowery, Valdez, Bloodworth, Bigelow, and Good were the mainstay of the Bulldogs' forward wall, while Deeming, Negri, and Evans held up the honor of the backfield.

Ooops my dear. That's all for you

The Douglas High School's Golden Avalanche had a very successful basketball season, winning a total of 16 games and losing 9. In thrilling, fast, high scoring games, Douglas displayed their superiority at home but seemed at a loss when they invaded other territory.

Jimmy Negri was the leading scorer of the squad followed by Mel West and Barney Young. The team acquired the nickname of the "Iron Five" as these three along with Joaquin Lira and Ramon Jordan wore the Gold and Black in most of the games.

Bulldogs Drop Two Openers

The season opened slowly with a loss to the Florence Badgers followed by another defeat handed to them by another northern five, the Wickenburg Wranglers. The Morsemen then began to click and rolled up eight straight victories before they again tasted defeat. They held the favored berth in the first half of the season, but pulled their tradion-al fade out and dropped behind before the tourney here on their local floor.

All-American Red Heads Easy Victory

For the second time in as many years the Golden Avalanche met and defeated the barnstorming All-American Redheads, a group of basketball players made up of the "fair sex". In a game that drew a record crowd, the Bulldogs played a slow game at first with considerably less fouls than they had had in any other to date.

The Redheads played a slow brand of ball and it threw the Bulldogs out of gear for a while, although they held the lead throughout the game except for a few minutes in the third quarter when the ball changed hands quite often. As the Avalanche pulled ahead by a good margin, Coach Morse sent in his reserves, against the now tired Redheads five. Ted Huish and Pete 'Hot' Rice showed up in this game as promising material for next years cage squad.

The Redheads made a rally in the final quarter but it fell way short and the Bulldogs chalked up their second win over them. Score 29-35.

Tucson Smothered in Fast Tilt

Continuing their winning streak, the Bulldogs met the usually strong cage team from the Old Pueblo here on the local hardwood, and gave them a thorough shellacking to the tune of 47 to 32. Tucson. who later won the Southern Conference cage tourney and was defeated by two points for the state title, had not yet hit their stride and fell easy victims to the fast, spectacular brand of ball the Golden Avalanche displayed throughout the season.

Coach Morse depended mostly on his "iron five" even when the Bulldogs had a good lead and the game was nearly over, not risking his new material. Emil Rey, Tucson captain and guard, played a good game for the Badgers and put on a display of real floor play for the spectators. This game drew one of the largest crowds of the season and was a big factor in keeping basketball in the black for the first time in the sports history in this school.

Bulldogs Drop a Close One

The Bulldogs went to Tuscon some shaken over the upset the Bisbee Pumas had sprung on them the week before. The game started off slow with both teams feeling the other out. Douglas got started and took the lead until the third quarter when the Badgers got hot and couldn't be stopped. They dropped in tally after tally and the tiring Bulldogs finally called time out. This seemed to put a crimp in the Tuscon rally and the game became slow and the Badgers stalled in an attempt to cinch the game. In the closing minutes the Avalanche staged a last-minute rally and swept to within four points of the Badgers. Just a flash before the gun went off, James Negri, all state guard, sunk a long shot but it was too late to win the game. The victory went to Tucson by the narrow score of 31 to 29.

Tucson Wins Southern Conference Tourney

The Southern Conference again found the Nogales Apaches and the Tucson Badgers battling it out for the honors. History repeated itself and the strong Badgers trimmed the Nogales five in a 39-24 game.

Bisbee No Match For Morsemen

The Morsemen took the consolation game from the Bisbee Pumas with a score of 54-23. The Bulldogs outclassed last year's consolation honorholders from the start, breaking down their defense and scoring with ease after the first quarter. Negri led the Avalanche in their victory with 22 points. The Bulldogs were dropped from the championship bracket after going down before the tourney champs, the Tucson Badgers.

Bulldogs Make Tourney Selections

The Morsemen were well represented in the tourney selections, which were made by the coaches of the tournament. Mel West and Jim Negri were among the five to be selected for the first team and Barney Young was chosen as co-captain with Riddle of the Tucson Badgers on the second team. Jimmy Negri also was the one to receive the honor for being elected as one of the three most valuable players. Those selected: first team. West-Douglas, forward; Judd of Benson, forward; Durazo of Nogales,center; Negri of Douglas and Rey of Tucson as guards. Rey was chosen as captain of the first team. On the second team, co-captain Barney Young and Riddle of Tucson as forwards; Gibson of Benson as center and Slater of Bisbee and Marcus of the Nogales Apaches in the guard positions. Coolidge Easily Defeated

Douglas went to the state tourney as they were consolation champions of the Southern Conference and in their first game they met the strong Coolidge five from the Central conference. The game started with a zip that was surprising and Douglas took an early lead. They maintained it with ease and looked like sure material to play in the final as they ran up a 52-19 score before the final gun sounded.

Miami Ousts Morsemen from Play

The next night they clashed with a northern conference team, the Miami Vandals. The Bulldogs started in where they had left off the night before and took a ten-point lead. The game was fast throughout with both teams scoring often. Mel West played outstanding offensive ball for the bulldogs and Jim Negri played a stellar game at guard. Joaquin Lira and Ramon Jordan kept the floor play moving fast but couldn't seem to hit the net.

The Vandals began to sneak up on the Bulldogs early in the fourth quarter and the Bulldogs might have won had they tried stalling the ball. However they continued their fast "Mormon" style of playing and the Miami five was in the lead by one point as the final gun went off. The final score was Douglas 44, Miami 45. This game was commented on by the various newspapers of Southwestern Arizona as being the most interesting and exciting game of the entire tourney.

Consolation Honors Again-Darn it!

The first Annual Gold Medal Basketball Tourney was held on the local floor on March the 22 and 23. The Kobey's All-Stars of Bisbee walked away with the championship honor after winning from the Mormon five by a score of 30-27 in the final fray. The Bulldogs repeated the usual and won the consolation final, this time, from the Lordsburg five to the tune of 48-46 in an overtime match.

The All-Tourney squad was selected by officials of the tounament. Those of Douglas were Lira, forward; Young, center; and Negri, guard.

1940 TRACK SEASON

• The thinclad Bulldogs started practice at the end of the state basketball tourney with only three of their veterans of last year burning the cinders at the start. Mel West, Barney Young and James Negri who all three placed in the Southern Conference last year started the season this spring.

In the new crop of fresh material Coach Morse picked out several of the most promising boys and has brought them a long way in one season. Among them are Harvey Smith, John Bowers and Joe Jones.

The Bulldogs started their season with a dual meet with the local Y.M.C.A. but as the Y had but a small number of contestants the meet was but an intersquad meet giving the boys a chance to make points towards letters and at the same time to acquaint them with a formal meet. On April 6 the Bulldogs clashed with their ancient rivals, from the hills in the first of two dual meets scheduled between Douglas and Bisbee for the past season. In this first meet Douglas came out ahead of the Pumas 70 to 52, scoring places in every event and sweeping all three places in the high jump. The following week the Bulldogs played hosts though not by as large a margin as before, the final tally being 71 ⅜-50 ⅛ in the Bulldogs favor. The meet showed them to be a threat in the Southern Conference meet which was held in Douglas on April 27. Douglas is hopeful of placing many of their men in at least third place or better, and then qualifying for the state meet which will be held in Tucson at the University of Arizona the early part of May. Last year the Bulldogs were runners-up in the state meet and garnered the first trophy a Douglas team has ever won in that meet. Chances are hopeful however, that they win first place honors.

RIFLE TEAM . . . .

Coach Bobby Johnston

THE DOUGLAS Rifle team enjoyed "prosperity" for the first time in many years. Although the club was organized in 1929, it was temporarily disbanded until 1935, when it was again reorganized. This year it fired its most successful year since 1936. Five matches were fired this year, with Douglas winning the majority of them. A match was held with Prescott early in the year, and one some time later in the year. Three matches were fired with Miami, with Douglas winning two out of the three. Several of the members of the club competed in the N.R.A. postal matches, each of them receiving various medals for their marksmanship. A girls' division of the club was organized for the first time this year, under the direction of Kenneth King. The girls shot several matches with Bisbee and Tombstone, but their newness at the game prevented them from carrying off the honors in these matches. The keen interest displayed in the club, however, will continue the club next year. Robert Johnston coached the boys' division.

BASEBALL

THE HORSEHIDERS of Douglas warmed up early in the spring for their second year of baseball since 1935. Four games were played with the traditional rivals, the Bisbee Pumas, with Douglas claiming only one of the victories. Two games were played with Patagonia, but Douglas again went down under the bat of the visiting team. At this writing, a game with Tombstone had been scheduled but had not yet been played. The Douglas Bulldogs had defeated them early in the season and were favored to take them again. Nine returning lettermen brightened the outlook of the squad the first of the season, but that number soon dropped to only five, due to injuries and lack of interest. Freshman boys have shown an active interest in America's favorite sport, and Coach Morrow has hopes of an all-star squad next year with the frosh as the mainstays. Twenty-three boys were out at the beginning of the season, but track and injuries reduced that number considerably. Thelbert Morrow coached the squad again this year.

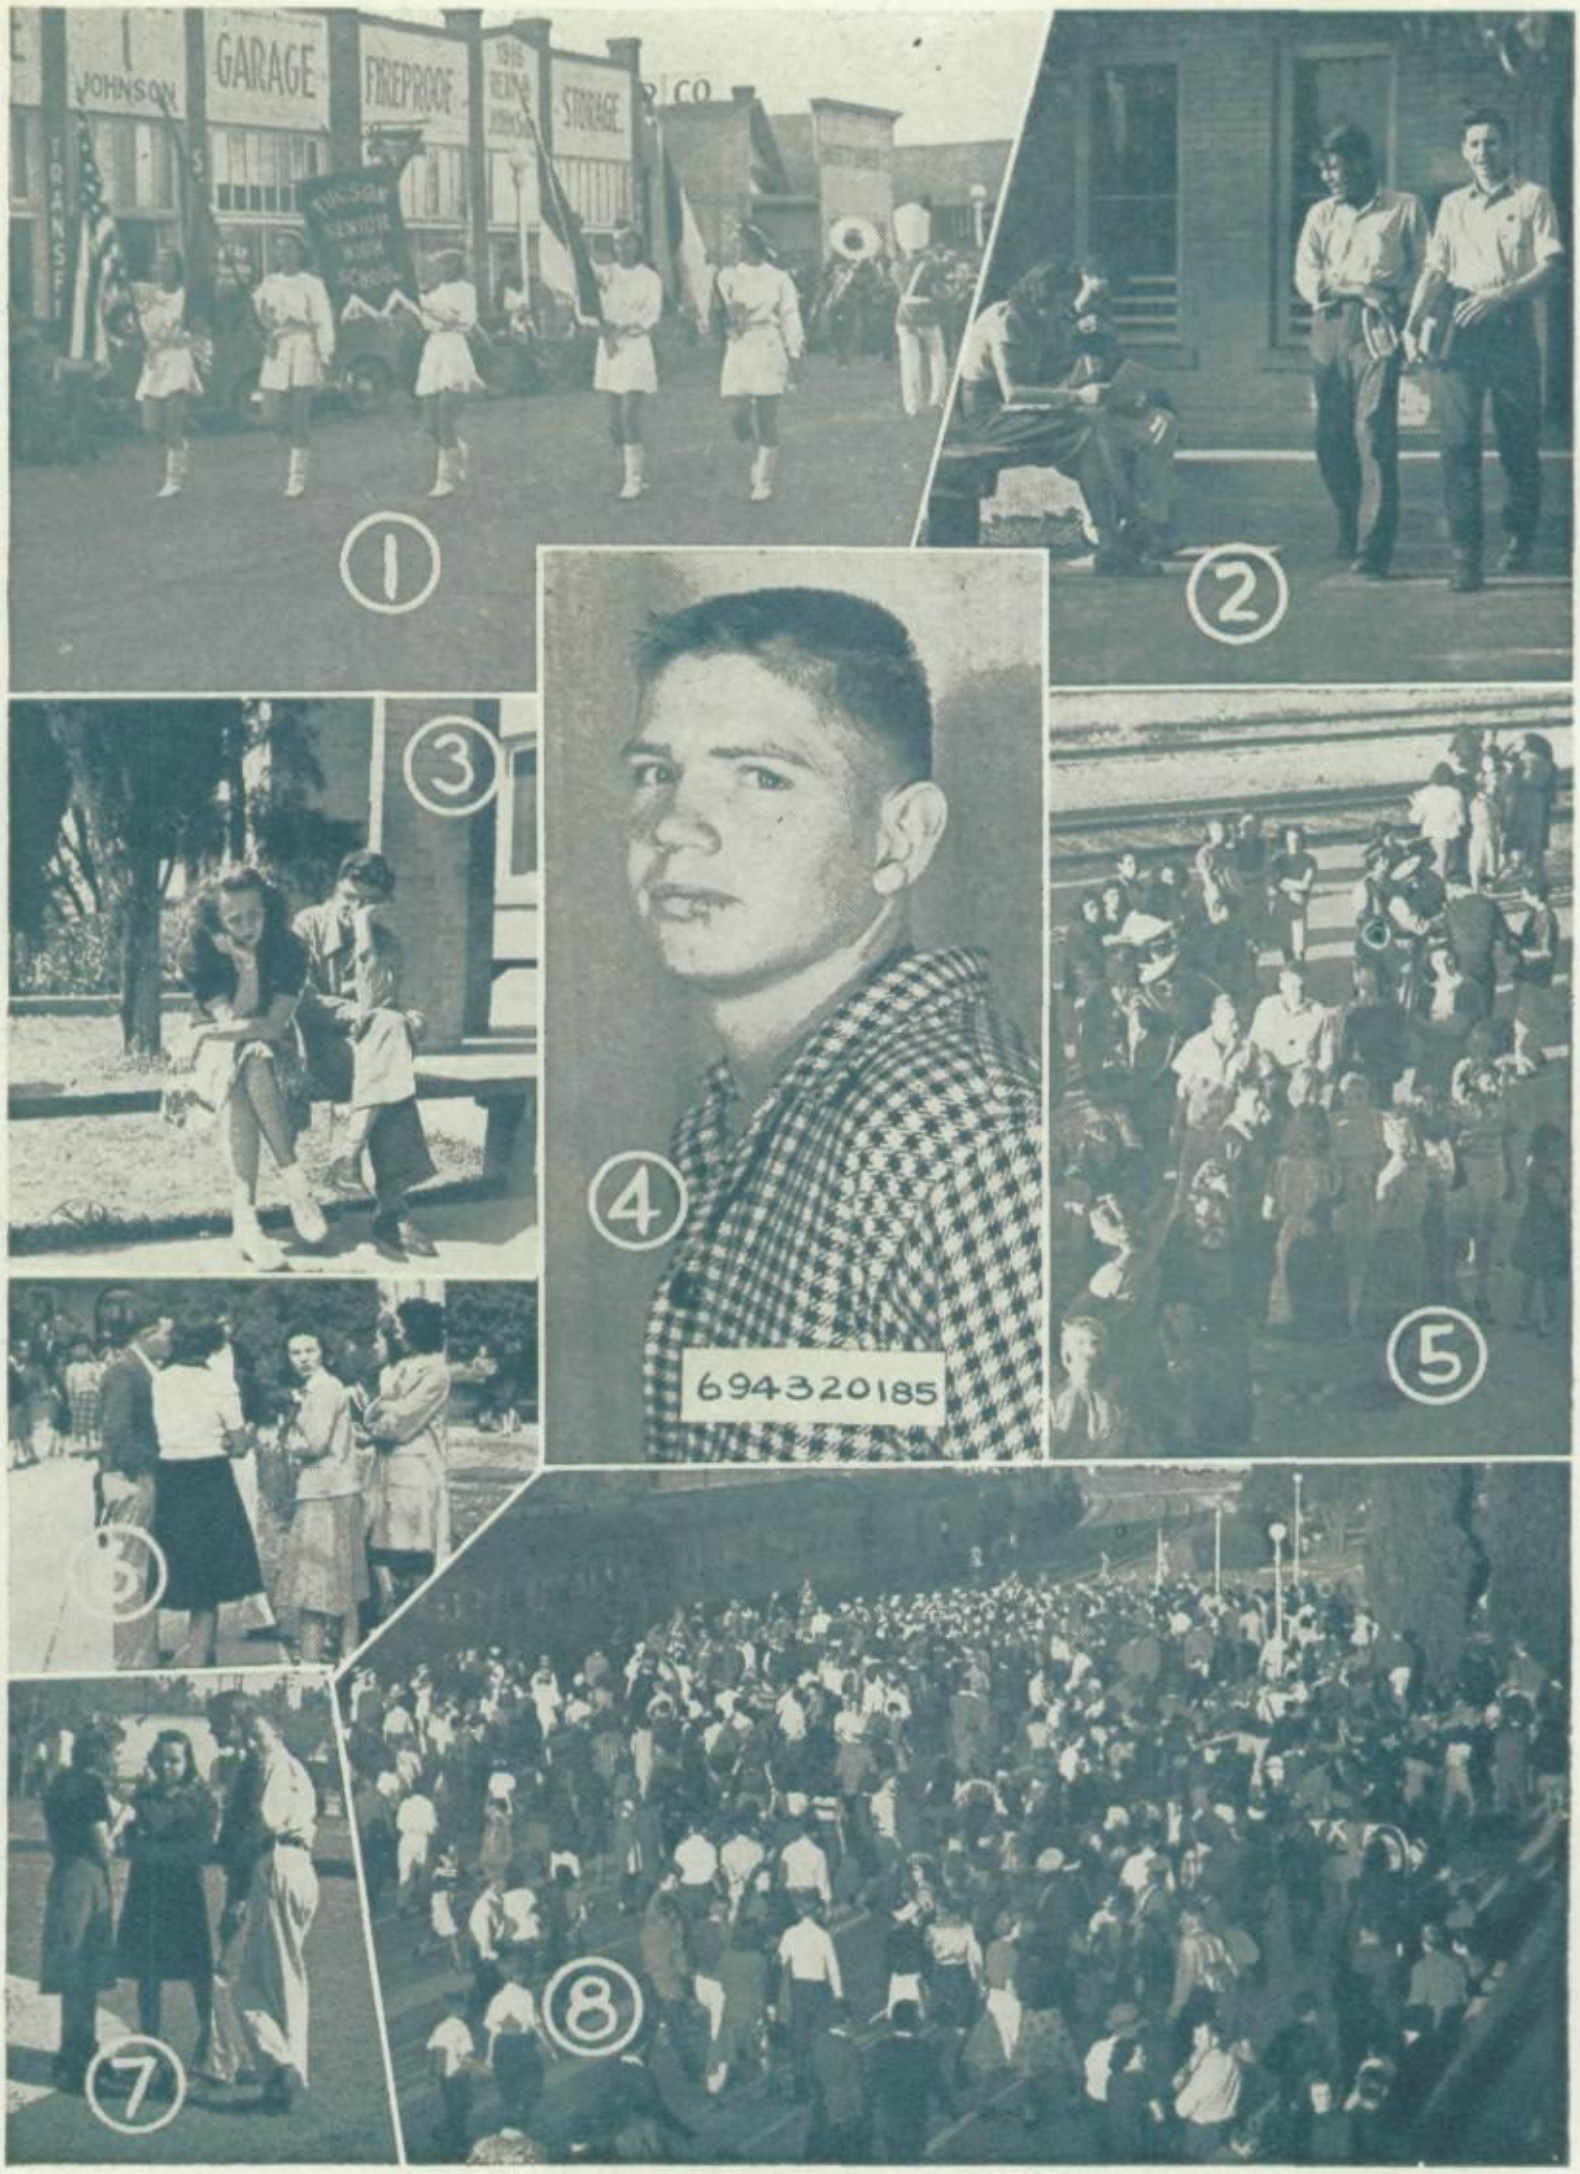
BOOK FIVE

1. Our drum and bugle corps lines up for the march before the game. . . 2. What, again. . . 3. The twirlers blithly twirl their way down "G" Avenue as they lead the pep rally before the games. . . 4. The band again shows its face . . . 5. The long-talked about pep rally. . . 6. Margot Sammarcelli, head twirler, smilingly poses for the Copper Kettle camera man. . . 7. Oh, oh! competition? Nope, just Jones free lancing around a bit for himself. . . 8. The pep rally wends around and around.

1. Everyone off to a grand start on the painting of the "D" as Johnston yells orders to some timid Freshie. . . 2. The "bosses" grin happily at the camera man. . . 3. Here we see the Frosh boys giving the "D" a real whitewash. Come on boy—the broom is to whitewash with, not to lean on. . . 4. Two of the newest members of D. H. S.'s family carry up the heavy tub of whitewash. . . 5. The "chain gang" bosses check whitewash and buckets. . . 6. Looks like real work, boys.

1. Pickett trips gaily down the steps. . . 2. Looks like a gals' gab session. The more girls, the more dirt, ya' know. . . 3. Gerry and Thelma together as usual. . . 4. The females of D.H.S. crowd through the learned portals. . . 5. "No, really?" "Well, at least that's the way I heard it!" . . . 6. Eleanor Moore looks quite forlorn, even though Margaret Soto tries her best to cheer her up. . . 7. The genial men of D.H.S. occupy the benches for the nerve-racking task of getting their pictures taken.

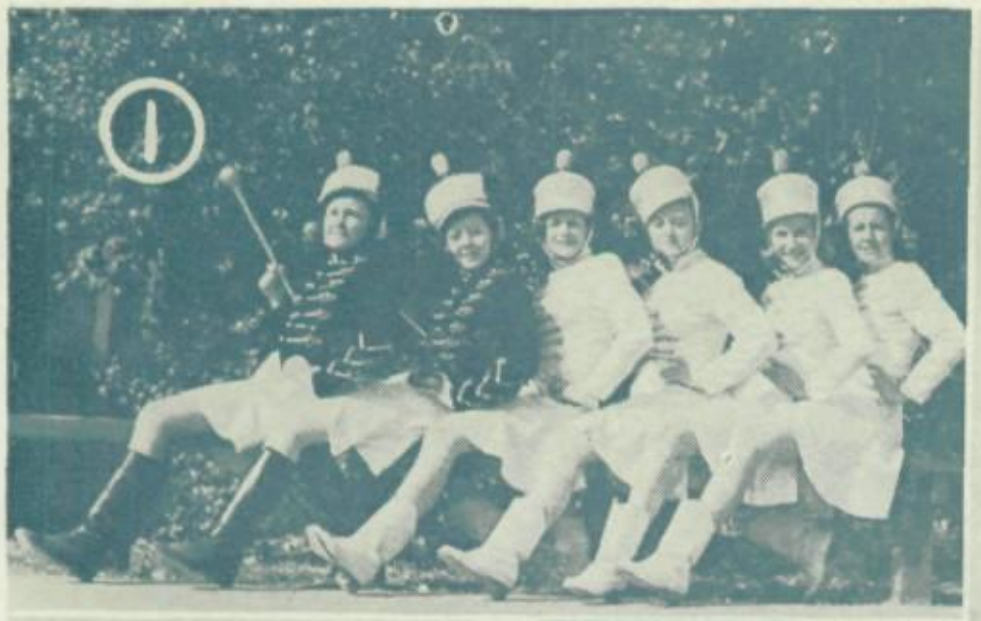
1. The hub-bub on the stairs—first issue of the Border Bulldog. . . 2. Freeman looking coy, Henderson puzzled, and Carter just plain sad. . . 3. Say, what is this? Oh, must be Adams in the middle 'cause there's West. . . 4. It's alright, Bobbie, just take it easy. Looks like fondness for Harbour runs in the Westbrook family. . . 5. "I tell you man, your crazy." So I am, says Grisham meekly and takes Collier's advice. Note the burr head adorning Collier's shoulders—just a DHS fad.



1. Tucson on parade. . . 2. Friday evening, what a relief. . . 3. Who is mad at whom? Dejection. . . 4. WANTED—$5000 reward—fugitive from the chain gang. . . 5. Part of the crowd waiting for the special from Tucson. Looks like Mrs. Wilkins in the center. . . 6. It's alright, Wanda, only a Copper Kettle photographer. . . 7. Richard in an "at rest" position. What's the gossip, Martha? . . 8. The special and 600 Tucson rooters are here. Looks like a rodeo crowd.

1. Tempe band unpacks for their concert before DHS students. The swing band was neat. . . 2. Hay fever? or just blowing again? . . 3. The Van Deren's taxi—always has several hanging on the sides. . . 4. That ain't the way I heerd it—or—I heard an entirely different version. . . 5. Somebody is foolin'—why all of those books? . . 6. In a hurry—three jumps behind the tardy bell. . . 7. The Tempe band packs after the concert before DHS students.

1. Genial Charlie Long smiles for the camera man. . . 2. All join hands and circle to the left—ladies in the center and gents all-around or somepin' like that. . . 3. Hi diddle-diddle kid! Seen at the no-date dance. Aurelia seems to be enjoying it, too . . . 4. Charlie caught at his dance for the seniors. What cha doin' Leo? . . 5. Truckin' at the dancing class sponsored by the N.H.S. They're doing alright, too . . 6. I don't like it—it didn't look that way to me. Caught at an unhappy moment.

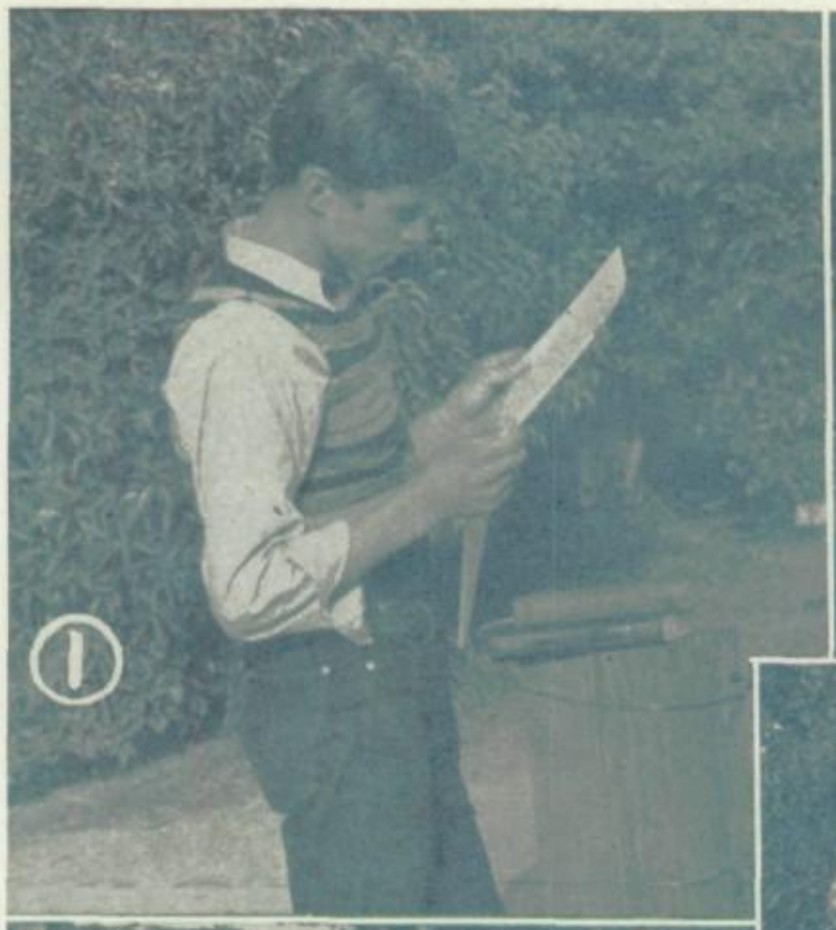


1. Twirlers pose prettily and the effects aren't so bad either. . . 2. Looks like a statue, but it isn't. . . 3. My, My, Dorothy—looks alright too. . . 4. Irene Evans poses too. . 5. Another statue. . 6. Betty Thomas struts along. . 7 Left to right we have Peggy Wells, Betty Thomas, Dorthy Dillard, Ruby Helms, Evelyn Wells, and Irene Evans. The girls formed a drill squad of D. H. S. twirlers and did well for their first year. They looked all "dolled-up," too.

1. Seniors arrive in Rustler's Park for their annual Ditch Day. . . 2. Wassa matta, Margaret ? Don't you like the crowd.? . . 3. Oh! Hum the party is getting dull. . . 4. "All aboard for home", is the call and no one wished to hear it. . . . 5. What's West doing with a grin? . . 6. Miss Moore is having a bath. What no privacy! . . 7. What a splash this would make. . . All claimed they had a good time and was Mr. Bergfield's face red when he returned — it was from the sun.

1. Ste- - - - -rike and don't argue son. Squeaky calls 'em and leaves no doubt in any one's mind. . . 2. What's Negri looking at? The ball or the Ford across the street. . . 3. Negri practices goose step. . . 4. What a swing. You would make a dancer boy. . . 5. Babe Ruth is on the plate and how! . . 6. Keeping "Ye Olde Benche" warm. Pitcher Hannum wears 'em out—note shirt tail and Morrow seems in deep thought or bewilderment. Bisbee 12—Douglas 2

1. The happy social hour before doors open at noon. Harmon looks disgusted but maybe he just needs an aspirin. . . 2. Let us in on that joke, Cuppe. In case it's one of Mr. Dunham's, though, I've already heard it. . . 3. Silverman laughs, as usual, at nothing . . . 4. Could it be? Yep, it's Marjorie Garrett before Avery completely caught up with her. . . 5. This is too much for me—20 boys at one time (I counted them)—wow!! . . . 6. Blackie looking pensive while Windy steps out with our student body prexy.



1. Tony Morales reads—believe it or not—the pride and prejudice of D.H.S.—the Border Bulldog. . . 2. Nellie Thurman, winner of the 4-H club trip to Chicago, affectionately smiles at the camera. . . 3. The students take advantage of the new sidewalks to walk on the grass. . . 4. Some attraction I must say—mind letting us in on it? . . . 5. Cuppe busily at work in the office. . . 6. What patience that gal Windy must have! The last I heard from her it was "knit one, purl one." Hmm, I wonder.

1. Homemakers in the making. . 2. Eugene Robinson really at work in the drafting room. I didn't beleve it myself until I saw the picture. . . 3. Pickett obligingly explains something. . . 4. Oh, oh! looks like experimenting in the lab. Better leave before I get blown out. . . 5. They always told me yawning was contagious—Oh! sorry Miss Fredlin. . . 6. Miss Jones oversees Martha's stitching just to be sure. Mary seems to be doing all right. . . 7. Could this be econ class? They aren't really this studious though.

1. Jack Sheen labors over some drafting problem. . . 2. The woodwork class planes down their various objects under the supervision of Mr. Ingman. . . 3. Lira runs the Intertype—Mr. Huber's pride and joy—at a fast clip. Beginners work on the cases 4. Two members of the metal working class trundling fuel for the forge. . . 5. Bickerstaff hard at work—lone inhabitant of the usually filled library. . . 6. Typing class takes time off to chew fingernails, meditate over nothing, and pose for picture.

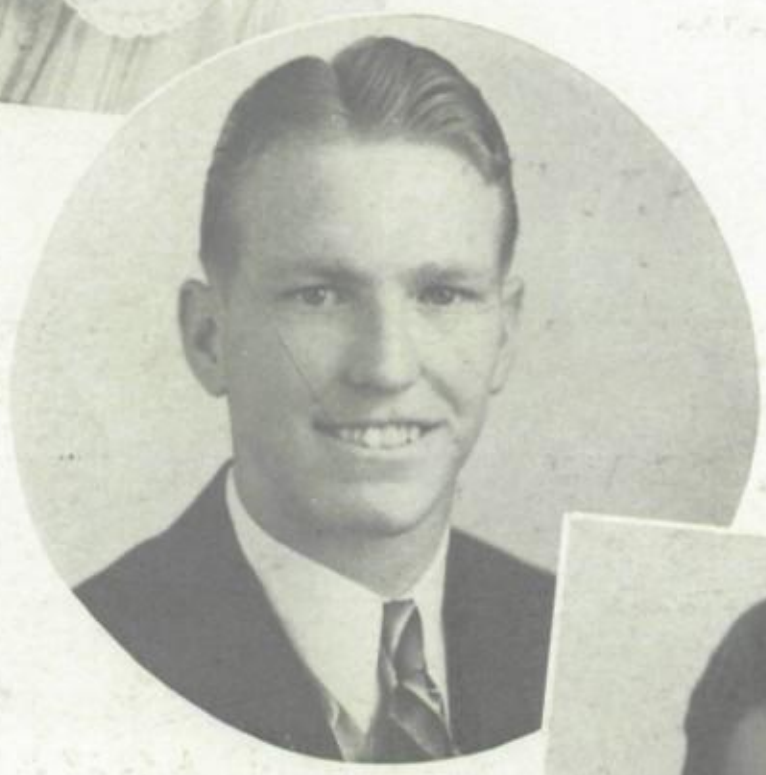
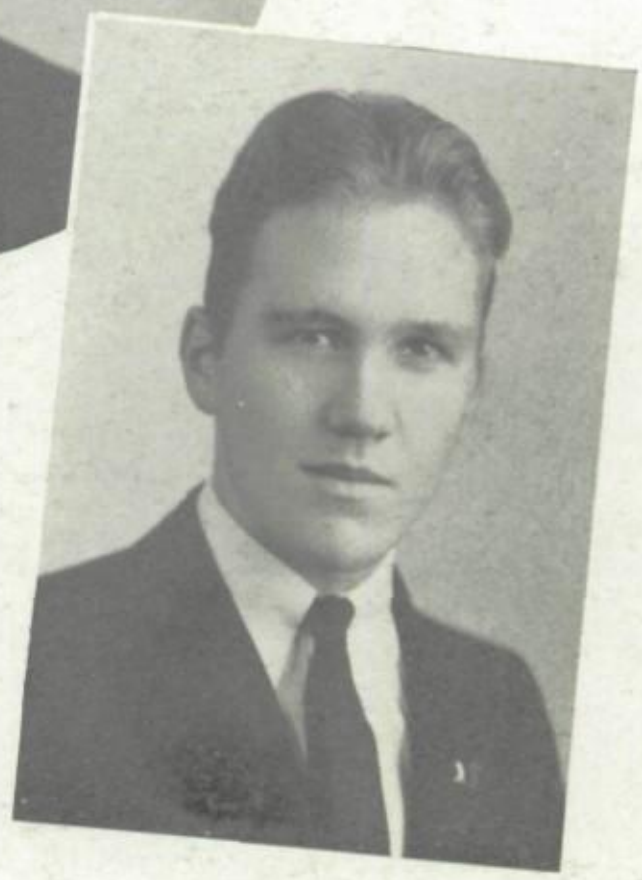
YOUR 1940 . . . . .

• Florence Lindsey served in the capacity of editor of the 1940 Copper Kettle. Florence worked during the summer of '39 to shape the book as she desired it and during the year successfully managed her staff.





• Bill Hudzietz and Lee Van Deren successfully managed the business affairs of the '40 yearbook. Both worked earnestly and closed the Kettle's most successful financial year.

COPPER KETTLE

• The Copper Kettle staff unlike the Bulldog staff, is a group working on an extra curricular activity. The staff works on its own time receiving no school credit for work done.

The preliminary 1940 Copper Kettle was presented by the editor to the members of the staff early in September. The staff enthusiastically accepted its many features and proceeded in workmanlike manner to carry it to completion.

Other activities of this small group were the staging of the Queen contest in which they secured Robert Cummings of Universal Pictures to act as beauty judge, and the elaborate Coronation Ball which was presented in December.

THE BORDER BULLDOG

Jack Carter

Hector Sammarcelli

• During the first semester of the 1939-40 school year, the Border Bulldog was edited by Jack Carter who established a conservative policy for the paper. Pack, after doing a fine job of editing, relinquished his position to accept employment at a local bank.

Hector Sammarcelli managed the business of the Dawg, soliciting advertising and collecting monthly statements. He worked efficiently and kept the paper on a paying basis.

During the second semester of the year co-editors took over the task of managing the Bulldog. Patsy Henderson and Frank Good continued the success already achieved by the others.

VOICE OF THE STUDENTS

• Under the supervision of Arthur C. Prescott, the Border Bulldog has completed another year of success in the publication field of D. H. S. Journalism students, enrolled to meet at 8 o'clock in the morning have had full charge and responsibility for the editing and publishing of the weekly paper. Thirty-one issues were published during the school year—not a single school week being missed after the staff began publication in October. A wide variety of news was covered by the staff and the reader's responses to the question "Does the Border Buldog meet the needs of this school?" indicated success for the Dog this past year. Most readers state that the paper is superior in all respects.

During the second semester of this past school year, the business management of the Bulldog has been in the hands of Eva and Doris Adair. Both have worked diligently and efficently in keeping the paper on a sound financial basis The two business managers were enrolled in the Journalism course and the managing of the financial end of the paper satisfies the requirements of this course.

GLEE . . .

This group consists of the beginners in choral work. This is the first year enrolled in the glee club class. The group meets daily.

● Included under the title of "glee club" are Mixed Chorus, as well as the girl's glee club. This year the glee clubs participated in more activities than perhaps they have in any other year. The musical festival was held this year in Tucson, March 15 with nearly 150 musical students from Douglas attending. Through the courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce, tickets were available for musical students to attend three concerts brought to Bisbee and Douglas by the Senior Music Clubs of both cities. Perhaps the highlight of these programs was the concert starring Kenny Baker, well known tenor singer. Over twenty-five students were able to attend the performance using the above mentioned student tickets. The glee clubs conducted several Christmas Community sings in an effort to unite the city in a more universal Christmas spirit. During the holidays, the annual cantata was presented. which proved to be one of the most sucessful activities of the group.. Early in April the National Music Conference was held in Los Angeles—Harold Devaney represented the school playing with the massed orchestra. Harold is a violinist well known throughout the state. He was accompanied by Miss Fredlin and Mr. Utke. During the latter part of April, the girl's trio, boys quartet, and the girls glee club competed in the music contest at Gila Junior College. The girls sextette and other groups appeared for various clubs in the city.

The advanced group is made up of girls who have been enrolled previously and have had some experience in group singing.

• Starting the second semester with fifteen new members, ten seniors and five juniors, and a fresh package of pep, the National Honor Society showed its true colors, storing up an enviable record for initiating new programs into DHS. Programs were planned for each meeting to incite interest in the club. One of the first successes of the club was the No-Date Dime dance held the last of January. Over twenty dollars were made on the dance and because of its popularity, another was planned for March 29. The most important service rendered by the club, was the dancing class held for those in DHS whose knowledge did not cover dancing. The class met in the game room of the gym twice each week.

• Organizing early in the year under the supervision of Glenn G. Dunham, the Thespian club began production immediately on a three-act play, "Skidding". After the cast was chosen and work begun on it, the remaining members of the club devoted their time to learning the fundamentals of acting—such things as speech, enunciation, and poise—the profit of which was shown in the pep assembly presented to the student body before the "D" Day Deming-Douglas game. In this amusing skit, Douglas was wedded to Miss Victory. At the beginning of the second semester, the Thespians disbanded as an organization and the cast for the spring play was chosen from the entire student body.

JR. MUSIC CLUB

• One of the newer of extra-curricular organizations, the Junior Music Club, continued to promote its aim of furthering the knowledge of high school students with classical and semi-classical music. . The club gained in enrollment over last year, and sponsored many more activities. Meetings were held regularly twice a month, and at each meeting prominent music lovers of Douglas were invited to talk on the phase of music in which they were most interested. Adding a new variety to their programs, a scrap book of famous musicians, both ancient and modern, was kept by the secretary. Contributions to the scrap book were made by members of the club and by various other individuals interested.

• Still keeping its record as one of the most active of clubs, the P. E. P. continued the selling of various kinds of refreshments to tired and cold rooters at the football games. Thanksgiving found the club distributing baskets of food to several underprivileged families, and in December a doll and candy sale was held. Retracing our steps a bit, we find Hallowe'en looming up as a most important date, for the club then sponsored a co-ed masquerade dance. The annual formal was held December 30 in the high school gym, to which both the Freshman P. E. P. and Bisbee clubs were invited. A joint Hi-Y—PEP meeting was held proving to be most popular. March 1st twenty delegates attended the Tri State Conference.

• As Junior division of the P.E.P. club, the Freshman Girl Reserves organized again this year for the benefit of the Freshman girls. The most notable of the successes recorded for the club was the selling of hotdogs, pop, and candy at the Southern Conference Basketball Tournament. Interclub meetings were held with the Senior P.E.P. club and with the local Hi-Y. The P.E.P. girls extended us an invitation to their winter formal. Early in April we returned the compliment by inviting the senior club to a jeans and-apron co-ed dance, a variation of last years Go Western Rodeo dance. Ending their second year as a separate organization of the P.E.P. club, the F. G. A. club presented their assembly.

• The Spanish Girl Reserve again chalked up a record for one of the most active of extra-curricular organizations. Because of their lack of funds, a raffle sale was held early in December. Proving very profitable, a like sale was held later in the year. Installing a novel idea for entertainment, this club sponsored a box supper. It was fun for all guessing whose box was whose, and bidding high for the prettiest box, and lots of blushes for those whose boxes brought high rewards. One of the main successes was the weiner roast, following close on the heels of spring. The annual spring formal brought to a close the activites of the club — one of iis most successful years was at an end.

. . . . HI-Y

• The Hi-Y Club started its activities of the year by initiating to the club a majority of its members, the initiation was held at the Christian church. As of last year, efforts were carried on in order to try and rid the city of obscene literature. The greatest accomplishment of the organization's activities was the Hollowe'en parade and free show for small children. Almost the entire club attended the Hi-Y conference held in Bisbee, as a result, the Junior Hi-Y was organized in order to carry out the policy of expansion expressed at the conference. During the year, the club also sponsored several dances and parties, a shooting gallery at the Hi Jinx Carnival, an assembly, a magician show and a Christmas box.

• The "D" Club held their first meeting of the year on September 27, electing officers. At the same meeting, October 13 was chosen for the annual "D" Day, with Deming as the Bulldogs' opponents in the annual classic. With the nearing of "D" Day, the frosh were taken to "D" hill where they labored and whitewashed the letter almost to perfection. The "D" was lighted with proper ceremony on "D" Day, burning until after the Bulldog victory was won. Following the game, the "D" club sponsored their annuol dance. Later in the year, each member acted as a sponsor for the visiting basketball teams that attended the Southern Conference Basketball Tourney. Activities ended with the annual assembly.

Sang together
Danced together
Happy as a song.

Crammed together
Flunked together
and wondered what was wrong.

H. Stevens: Ooo! Look at the pretty cow. She's the one that gives white milk.
R. Collier: Yeh, and in a minute I suppose you'll tell me that brown one gives coffee.

A customer entered a small town barber shop.
"How soom can you cut my hair?" he asked.
"Bill," said the barber addressing his small son, "run to the Gazette and tell the editor if he's done editing the morning edition, I'd like my scissors. The Gentleman wants a haircut."

Miss Moore: In the Artic the Eskimos eat meat and blubber.
L. Gray (Fresh): I think I would, too, if I had to eat seal meat.

Bob Nash: "Mother, what did you do with my shirt."
Mother: "I sent it to the cleaners."
Bob: "Ye, Gods, the whole history of England was on the cuff."

If she goes with all the boys
  She's a flapper,
If she doesn't go with boys,
  She can't get them.
If she speaks to everyone,
  She's a flirt.
If she doesn't speak,
  She's a "high hatter,"
If she goes to school to study,
  She doesn't go to parties,
If she doesn't study in school,
  She's dumb;
So what's a poor girl to do?

I often say I love you
When I hold your hand,
I often say I worship you,
When called your only man,
I often whisper words that tell you,
Our love never dies,
I often wonder too just why:
I tell such awful lies.

The Sophomore is sassy and blows,
The Junior is brassy and doze,
The Senior is classy and knows.

A cleric owned a farm, and endeavored to practice rigid economy in its operation.

One day, taking a stroll, he saw his plowman sitting idle on the handle of his plow, while the horses took a needed rest. The sight rather shocked the good cleric - farmer's sense of economy. He said gently but reproachfully, "John, wouldn't it be a good plan for you to have a pair of shears and be trimming these bushes while the horses are resting?"

John returned the minister's gaze and answered: "And might I suggest that you take a bowl of potatoes into the pulpit and peel 'em during the anthem?"

. . . . Autographs

Dear Jessie,

I don't know where to start, but here it is: I think you're positively scrumptious! I could eat you alive. You're a sweet, bitter pill that's easy to chew but hard to digest; but still I've had a wonderful year with you - believe it or not!

Remember the time I slept at your house and we swiped all those marshmellows + stuff and ate in bed? I will remember that and many other little happenings until I am old and gray. Here's hoping you never forget me. Lots of luck, happiness, best wishes, money, fun, clothes, swell eats, health, goodness, friends, popularity, intelligence, success, proms + dresses, parties, good grades, sunshine, energy, ambitiousness, sweetness, prettiness, etc. anyway, that's all I can think of at the moment.

I'm tired - goodbye -

Lowery: "Nope, I always leave my girl at home."

R. Silverman: "So you're giving Raleigh the sack."
N. Silverman: "Yes, but I'm keeping the presents which came in it."

Mr. Prescott started to leave in the middle of the second act of the senior play. "Don't go now," said Mr. Bergfield. "I promise there's a terrific kick in the next act." "Fine" was the retort. "Give it to Mr. Dunham."

"You ought to feel highly honored, young man," said the big businessman to Ray Collier, a life insurance agent. "Do you know that today I have refused to see seven insurance men?"

"I know," replied Ray, "I'm them."

Confucius Say———

Girl say buy, buy; boy say bye, bye.

Cheap skate cut no ice.

Opportunity never knocks at door of fellow not worth a rap.

What is a double petunia?

Well, a petunia is a flower like a begonia:

A begonia is a meat like a sausage;

A sausage and battery is a crime;

Monkeys crime trees;

Trees a crowd;

A rooster crowed in the morning and made a noise;

A noise is on your face like your eyes;

The eyes is the opposite of the nays;

A horse nays; a horse has a colt;

You get a colt and go to bed and wake up in the morning with double petunia.

Excerpt from Charles B. Driscoll's column "New York Day by Day". Date-Sept. 25, 1939.

" ..... Yet, here we are, having flown almost across the continent to find a school. Yes, it's the result of a lot of talk. Several years ago, on the way to California, I woke up as the plane was taking off at Phoenix. The sun was rising. Such gorgeous hues of changing light, reflected from the glowing desert and blue-gray mountains. If I had been awakening from the last long sleep I would have known that this was heaven. . . . That was the beginning of a love of the desert country that has never waned in all the busy days and years in the heart of New York. I have come back and back again, always for brief stops, a day or two or three at a time, for work holds me in the city..... Many times, weary of the rush and noise and fever of the metropolis, I have sat in my workshop looking down into Broadway, and seen the friendly desert, as a mirage, stretching illimitably toward the setting sun, beyond the Hudson.....Again and again I have watched Newark and Queens fade below as the impatient plane has risen with its nose pointing unerringly into the west. Always I have returned with new strength and zest for work, and a treasure of silence stored up against the mounting noise of city streets. . . . . ."

Knitting gives women something to think about while they are talking.

HEARD AT THE GAME

The line play between the U of A Varsity and the Frosh was rough and rugged and from one of the wild melees emerged a red-jersied Frosh with his white undershirt hanging midway between his hips and knees. As he started in to the huddle a voice from the stands was heard to shout, "Hey, fix your slip."

The modern version is: Little kisses should be seen and not hurried.

Chambers: That husky chap over there is a toe dancer.
Harbur: Gwan, your crazy!
Chambers: Oh, yeah? Well, dance with him and he's all over your toes.

L. Gray: That Ames is always full of new wheezes.
N. Fergerson: What has he got, a sense of humor.
L. Gray: No, asthma.

R. Lowery: I sold kisses at the Charity Ball last night.
Stites: Did you have a good business.
R. Lowery: Perfect! I took in 500 smackers.

Test Your Song I. Q. . .

Below are listed the descriptions of titles of songs ot the recent popular hits. Can you discern what the descriptions represent?

1. Blossoms in precipitation.
2. Below the geographical border.
3. The night before tonight.
4. I was unconscious of the clock spinning around.
5. Disconnected in the upper story.
6. Floral offerings of pastel colors.
7. A plea belonging to me.
8. Indigo Day after Sunday.
9. The bearded chimney sweeper is going to visit.
10. Cease, it's too, too, divine.
11. Treat me as an infant.
12. Quite a few reveries in the past.
13. Discontinue using my palpitation organ as a foot exercise.
14. Can't you acknowledge our acquaintance?
15. The hour before two leap.
16. I ought to be handcuffed.

ODDITIES . . . . . .

The Labrador duck first was made known to science in 1788, and little is known of its nesting habits. Not one egg was saved, and only a few specimens of the bird are in existence today. It is supposed to have been bred in Labrador. Feather hunters are blamed for its extinction.

The title of admiral is derived from the Arabic, meaning "Lord of the Sea."

The Canary Islands were known to the ancients as "The Fortunate Isles."

I Doubt It . . . .

When a pair of red lips are upturned to your own,
With no one to gossip about it,
Do you pray for endurance to let them alone?
Well. Maybe you do, but I doubt.

When a sly little hand your are permitted to seize,
With a velvety softness about it,
Do you think you can drop it with never a squeeze,
Well. Maybe you do but I doubt.

When a tapering waist is in reach of your arm,
With a wonderful plumpness about it,
Do you argue the point, "twixt the good and the harm?"
Well. Maybe you do but I doubt it.

And if by these tricks you should capture a heart,
With a womenly softness about it,
Will you guard it, and keep it, and act the good part?
WELL. MAYBE YOU WILL. BUT I DOUBT IT!

One rheumatism pain to another—"Let's get out of this joint."

With a wild yell he sprang behind a chair, threw it madly to one side and then flung himself under the a table. For several minutes he lay there, wiggling and squirming Then he dragged himself out, hitting his head on the bottom of the table, and, cursing furiously, dashed across the room and dived over a divan. After a minute he crawled from behind it and stood up "These d---- ping pong balls are heck to catch." he muttered.

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . . . .

Just recently $2,500,000 was spent for the construction of a potash plant near Carlsbad, New Mexico which is being equipped with the latest type mining and processing equipment for initial production this summer.

In July, 1931 ground was broken for the vast New York project that today is a city within-a-city. In 1939 the $100,000,000 Rockefeller Center was finished and was put to use by radio buildings, restaurants, night clubs, skating ponds, and homes.

In 1939 the toys that were made amounted to $235,000,000. This was 10 per cent more than the year 1938. The toys have also become more modern. Toy ice cubes can be made in the refrigerators, trains and cars were improved so that they can dump the freight.

Now, you can buy cars that have an air-conditioner. Just recently, the Packard cars have installed such a system so that in the winter it circulates warm air, and in the summer cool, refreshing air.

Rudyard Kipling's first long novel, "The Light That Failed" has been dramatized three times on the screen. In 1916 and 1923 it failed, and recently it has succeeded.

Butter could be made from coal. Steam is blown through coal to produce hydrogen and carbon monoxide. The gas is then treated until it is built into synthetic carbon containing fats which can be made into butter by the addition of glycerine. At present soap is being made by this process.

Dear Jessie,

I can't even begin to tell you how much I think of you but I can tell you this much, I think you are one of the sweetest girls in good old D.H.S.

Always remember the good times we have had on the Sunday evenings. Remember our moonlight picnic?

I hope that through our years together our friendship will continue and our lives will always be full of the happy incidents that have happened in the past between us.

Jessie, I hope you will always remember me and remember that I was one of those horrid girls from D. H. S. that wished you the very best of luck, success and happiness that any person could possibly have.

Love,

Helen Sunder

P.S.

Do hope
